Senator Fuschillo Sponsors Small Business Networking Expo for Local Business Owners

CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. April 19, 2013

Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) recently held his annual Small Business Networking Expo, where entrepreneurs from across Long Island came to network and learn how to help their businesses grow.

Business owners who participated in Senator Fuschillo's Small Business Networking Expo were able to learn about a variety of different business assistance programs designed to help them grow and develop. At the event, business owners were able to speak individually with representatives from government and non-profit agencies about these programs, as well as with representatives from local Chambers of Commerce about the services they provide. Information about recovery programs for businesses that were affected by Hurricane Sandy was also provided.

Additionally, the event enabled small business owners to network with one another to promote their businesses and exchange information.

Small business owners who were unable to attend Senator Fuschillo's Small Business Networking Expo but would like more information about any of these services can call his office at 516-882-0630 or email him by clicking here.
