Distinguished local U.S. Army veterans' and founding members of the Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery Association, Don Linborg and Carm Pascarella were recently nominated for induction into the New York State Senate Veterans Hall of Fame by State Senator Mike Nozzolio. They were honored during a special ceremony at the State Capitol for their service to our Nation, as well as their dedicated efforts working alongside Senator Mike Nozzolio, in helping to establish the Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery.

“As State Senator, I was pleased to work closely with Don Linborg and Carm Pascarella as we fought to establish the Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery,” said Senator Nozzolio. “Their commitment to honoring the service and sacrifice of our veterans is outstanding and I thank them for everything they do on behalf of our local veterans. I look forward to working with Don and Carm as we continue our efforts to honor our brave servicemen and women.”

The Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery is located on the hallowed ground of the former Sampson Naval and Air Force bases, where over one million sailors and airmen trained in preparation for battle to defend the United States of America. The Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery was dedicated on July 30, 2011 and is the final resting place for over 100 veterans and their family members. The Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery is located in Romulus, New York, a tremendously beautiful setting on the eastern shore of Seneca Lake, and within the shadow of the nationally recognized birthplace of Memorial Day in Waterloo.

U.S. Navy and Army Reserve veteran Rick Connors of Seneca Falls, the former Chairman of the Sampson Veterans Memorial Cemetery Association was inducted in the Veterans Hall of Fame and honored by Senator Nozzolio at a prior ceremony.

"It is an honor to recognize these distinguished veterans for all they have done to establish the cemetery as a world-class final resting place for the many veterans who served with honor and dignity and for their commitment to serve others."
