Listening Tour for the 43rd Senate District

I want to hear from you!

Senator Kathleen Marchione announces Listening Tour visits for this coming Saturday, September 28, constituents are invited and welcome to attend!

Senator Kathleen Marchione's (R,C-Halfmoon) Listening Tour for the 43rd Senate District is headed to Columbia and Rensselaer Counties this weekend! Senator Marchione's Listening Tour for the 43rd Senate District will visit Columbia County and also will be open to Towns in Rensselaer County, this Saturday, September 28.

The public meetings will take place in the Town of New Lebanon (also for constituents in the Towns of Canaan, Chatham, Stephentown, Nassau and Berlin) in the morning, and the Towns of Kinderhook (also for constituents in the Towns of Ghent, Stuyvesant, Stockport, and Schodack) and Greenport (also for constituents in the Town of Claverack and City of Hudson) in the afternoon. Senator Marchione is once again inviting constituents to attend the Listening Tours and share their views regarding state and local issues, as well as any requests for assistance. Two weeks ago, Senator Marchione's Listening Tour visited the Towns of Germantown and Hillsdale in Columbia County. Last week, the Listening Tour stopped in the Town of Greenfield in Saratoga County.

"I look forward to having another opportunity to meet with my constituents and address their concerns at the Listening Tours scheduled for this Saturday, September 28. During every Listening Tour stop, I learn more insights that help me better serve the hard-working families of the 43rd Senate District that I am so honored to represent," said Senator Marchione.
