

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Hugh T. Farley

Senator Farley and Colleagues Conducted Cyber Security Hearing Nov. 18th

HUGH T. FARLEY November 22, 2013

| ISSUE: HOMELAND SECURITY

State Senator Hugh T. Farley (R, C, I – Schenectady) and six of his Senate colleagues hosted a hearing in Rome, NY, and heard testimony from experts in law enforcement, finance and computer science about the state's preparedness against cyber-attacks on November 18th.

The hearing was open to the public and was streamed live on the Internet. It can be viewed at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2IhSWt1Vow>

Testimony was given by several experts, including:

- Benjamin Lawsky, Department of Financial Services superintendent
- Jerome Hauer, Division of Homeland Security & Emergency Services commissioner
- Joseph D'Amico, State Police superintendent
- Steve Chapin, associate professor at Syracuse University's LC Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science
- Shiu-Kai Chin, co-director of Syracuse University's Center for Information and Systems Assurance and Trust (CISAT)
- Raymond L. Philo, Utica College's director of research operations