MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO November 27, 2013

Continuing his strong commitment to job-producing small businesses, New York State Senator Mike Nozzolio is encouraging local residents to participate in “Small Business Saturday” and shop at local businesses this Saturday, November 30th.

“Small Business Saturday is a day where we celebrate the important contributions that local small businesses make to our community and help to support their continued success by shopping locally. Please take the time to visit some of our many local small businesses this weekend,” said Senator Mike Nozzolio.
