

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jack M. Martins

Westbury School District Officials Meet WITH Senator Martins in State Capitol

JACK M. MARTINS March 12, 2014

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

Senator Jack Martins (R-Mineola) recently welcomed Westbury School District Superintendent Dr. Mary Lagnado and members of the Westbury School District Board of Education to the State Capitol in Albany.

Senator Martins discussed a variety of issues with the officials, including the need to deliver additional state education aid to the district so that it can serve its rapidly growing student population.

Senator Martins (center) is pictured as he meets with Dr. Lagnado (second left) and Board of Education members (l-r) Karin Campbell, Leslie Davis, and Pless Dickerson in the Senate Chambers in Albany.