Senator Martins & County Executive Mangano to Sponsor Kidpix Child ID Program in Port Washington

JACK M. MARTINS April 8, 2014

| ISSUE: CHILDREN

Senator Jack Martins (R-7th Senate District) and Nassau County Executive Ed Mangano, will be sponsoring a free KidPix photo ID program in Port Washington. The program will be held on Thursday, May 8th from 3 pm to 5 pm at the Port Washington Library (1 Library Drive, Port Washington).

The KidPix program gives parents a convenient way to keep their children's important information on a single, wallet sized ID card. The KidPix card includes the child's name, physical description, contact information, and photograph. The child's fingerprint is also included on the back of the card. In the event that a child goes missing, parents can give the KidPix card to law enforcement as a helpful tool to help return the child home more quickly.

Nassau County children of all ages can participate in the KidPix program. Photos and fingerprints will be processed on-site and families will be able to take their KidPix cards home right from the event. Families will be served on a first come, first served basis. No appointments are required.

For more information about the free KidPix photo ID program on May 8th, please call Senator Martins' office at 516-746-5924 or County Executive Mangano's office at 516-571-3131.
