NEW YORK – State Senator Daniel Squadron announced the sixth annual Service and Government Engagement (SAGE) Awards, honoring graduating Lower Manhattan and Brooklyn students who have demonstrated public service and a commitment to their communities beyond the classroom.

Thirty-two elementary, middle, and high schools across the 26th Senate District nominated students who exemplify a civic-minded spirit and have made an impact on their communities through service and engagement. Senator Squadron founded the award in 2009 to recognize students' achievements and foster a lifelong commitment to public service among young people.

The awards are being presented to students at graduation ceremonies throughout June. Among the schools Senator Squadron is planning to attend are:

- P.S. 8, the Robert Fulton School, 37 Hicks Street, Brooklyn; 9AM on June 23
- P.S. 126, Jacob August Riis, 80 Catherine Street, Manhattan; 9:45AM on June 23
- P.S. 20, The Anna Silver School, 166 Essex Street, Manhattan; 9AM on June 24
