“Navigating Your Way Through the College Application and Financial Aid Process” Program to be held at Manhasset Library on September 4th

Senator Jack M. Martins (R-Mineola) will be sponsoring a program to help parents and students learn about the college application process and the different types of financial aid which may be available to them. The “Navigating Your Way Through the College Application and Financial Aid Process” program will take place on Thursday, September 4th at the Manhasset Library (30 Onderdonk Avenue, Manhasset) beginning at 7 pm.

A representative from the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) will give parents and students tips about applying for college admission and the different types of college financial aid and scholarships which are available. Informational materials will also be available for families to take home with them. Parents and students will also have the opportunity to ask questions.

Families who need more information about the “Navigating Your Way Through the College Application and Financial Aid Process” program at the Manhasset Library on September 4th can contact Senator Martins’ office at 516-746-5924.
