Senator Rev. Ruben Diaz and Fellow Ministers to Welcome Attorney General Candidate John Cahill to the Bronx

On Thursday, September 25, 2014 at 9AM Senator Reverend Ruben Diaz (D-Bronx) and the New York Hispanic Clergy Organization will welcome New York Attorney General Candidate John Cahill to the Christian Community Neighborhood Church, located at 1437 Longfellow Avenue (between Jennings and Freeman Streets) in the Bronx.

Senator Rev. Diaz stated: “My fellow ministers and I are honored that John Cahill will join us this week so we can share the various concerns that face our community with him. These issues include help for senior citizens, affordable housing, job opportunities, education, and family values. In our rich tradition, my fellow pastors and I will continue to welcome candidates to the Bronx to hear how they intend to serve us when they are elected to public office.”

The New York Hispanic Clergy Organization was created in 1988 and since then, it conducts a weekly meeting every Thursday, and has a membership of close to 150 Evangelical pastors and ministers in the City of New York. Senator Rev. Diaz serves as President.

The press is welcome.
