Senator Jack M. Martins (R-7th Senate District) recently attended the re-dedication of North Shore Child & Family Guidance Center's Lucille & Martin Kantor Bereavement and Trauma Center in Roslyn Heights.

The Center offers assistance to children, youths and their families during times of grief and trauma, including family members of suicide victims and parents of murdered children.

People in need can take advantage of these services by calling 516-626-1971.
