

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jack M. Martins

Senator Martins Visits Spectrum Designs in Port Washington

JACK M. MARTINS October 21, 2014

| ISSUE: DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Senator Jack M. Martins (R-7th Senate District) recently visited Spectrum Designs Foundation in Port Washington to congratulate Brent Matthew Lillard on receiving the William B. Joslin Outstanding Performance Award from New York State Industries for the Disabled. Brent was nominated for the award by the Foundation, which aims to provide gainful employment and meaningful work opportunities to individuals with autism, for all his hard work and the crucial role he plays there.

Senator Martins (third left) is pictured with (l-r): Patrick Bardsley, President & Co-Founder of Spectrum Design, Town of North Hempstead Councilwoman Dina DeGiorgio, Nassau County Executive Ed Mangano, Brent Matthew Lillard, Town of North Hempstead Supervisor Judi Bosworth, Jim Ring, Account Executive NYSID, Stella Spanakos, Co-Founder Spectrum Designs, Jennifer M. Lawrence, NYSID Manager Corporate Communications, and Nicole Sugrue, Co-Founder Spectrum Design.