

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael F. Nozzolio

Senator Nozzolio Takes Oath of Office

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO December 30, 2014

Seneca Falls- Ontario County Court Judge Craig Doran who also serves as Administrative Judge for the Seventh Judicial District and Acting Supreme Court Justice, recently administered the formal oath of office to New York State Senator Mike Nozzolio. Judge Doran is well known for his outstanding community service and fairness in interpreting the law.

“As New York State Senator, it has been my greatest honor to represent the people of the 54th District,” said Senator Mike Nozzolio. “It was both gratifying and humbling to receive such overwhelming support from the people I serve, and I thank my constituents for again putting their faith and trust in me.”

Senator Nozzolio’s agenda for the upcoming legislative session includes advancing initiatives to revive New York State by restoring the economy through controlled spending, tax cuts, and job creation.

Senator Nozzolio was re-elected to the State Senate in November and represents the 54th Senate District, which includes all of Seneca and Wayne counties as well as portions of Cayuga and Ontario Counties, the Town of Lansing in Tompkins County and the Town of Webster in Monroe County.

Pictured left to right are: Judge Craig Doran and Senator Mike Nozzolio.