Mobile Legal Help Center Will Offer Free Legal Assistance to Residents in Need

Senator Jack Martins (R-7th Senate District) announced that he will be sponsoring a program in Hicksville to provide free legal services to those in need.

Senator Martins has arranged to bring the Mobile Legal Help Center to the Hicksville Library (169 Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville) on Tuesday, March 31st from 10 am to 3 pm. The Mobile Legal Help Center, which is a partnership between the New York Legal Assistance Group (NYLAG) and the New York State Office of Court Administration, brings free, civil legal services directly into communities.

NYLAG staff will be available to provide free legal assistance to local residents on issues related to:

- Domestic violence
- Family Law
- Healthcare and disability benefits

- Housing
- Identity theft and consumer credit issues
- Advance Planning

Individuals should bring with them any documentation related to their situation that may be useful to the NYLAG staff in providing assistance. Appointments are recommended but walk-ins will be accepted and served as time permits.

Residents who would like more information about the free legal services program on March 31st or would like to make an appointment should call Senator Martins' office at 516-746-5924.
