

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Robert G. Ortt

National Autism Awareness Month

ROBERT G. ORTT April 2, 2015

| ISSUE: DISABILITY

April is: National Autism Awareness Month

1 in 68 CHILDREN have autism

30% INCREASE from 2012

The graphic features a background of colorful puzzle pieces in shades of yellow, blue, red, and green. The text is centered and uses a mix of bold, sans-serif and serif fonts. The statistics are presented in a large, green, serif font.

April is recognized as National Autism Awareness Month, with April 2nd designated as World Autism Awareness Day. The disorder affects nearly 1 in 68 children. To help raise awareness, please click on www.autismspeaks.org