(Albany, NY)- Senator Serrano met with Environmental Advocates of New York, an organization whose mission is to protect our air, land, water, wildlife and the health of all New Yorkers.

"It was a pleasure meeting with the great folks from Environmental Advocates of New York. We discussed ways to help protect our environment and I will continue to advocate for stronger legislation that protects our land and water, while taking a vocal stand against climate change," said Senator Serrano.

Senator Serrano has been an outspoken advocate on the issues of climate change and other environmental issues. The Senator is one of the most environmentally friendly legislators in the New York State Senate.
