

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Senator Betty Little talks about Samuel de Champlain at Crown Point Celebration

BETTY LITTLE September 23, 2009

| ISSUE: HISTORICAL PRESERVATION

State Senator Betty Little was one of the guest speakers at the Crown Point Quadracentennial Day Celebration on Saturday, September 19, 2009.

The event commemorating Samuel de Champlain's discovery of beautiful Lake Champlain also featured historic, cultural, educational and family activities, a special ceremony rededicating the Crown Point Lighthouse and a fireworks show.

Performances and presentations included Martin Sexton, the United States Merchant Marine Corps Band, Pulitzer Prize Winning Historian David Hackett Fischer and a special screening of the soon to be release documentary Dead Reckoning.