SENATOR BONACIC MEETS WITH ULSTERCORPS

JOHN J. BONACIC March 3, 2010

On March 3, 2010 representatives from UlsterCorps met with Senator Bonacic in Albany. UlsterCorps is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to increase the use of volunteers, facilitate successful and effective volunteer placements, and build collaborations among nonprofit organizations and with businesses interested in community involvement throughout Ulster County. Senator Bonacic is pictured with President Rik Flynn, Co-Directors Beth McLendon and Nancy Pompeo, and Laraine Mai after discussing their activities and plans for the coming year.
