Sen. Farley Greets New Yorkers for Constitutional Freedoms

HUGH T. FARLEY   March 17, 2010

State Senator Hugh T. Farley (R, C, I - Schenectady) meet with residents from Fulton and Montgomery Counties who were representing New Yorkers for Constitutional Freedoms on March 16th in Albany during the organization's Legislative Day. Many representatives were part of the Saving Grace Baptist Church of Fonda and the Baptist Church of Northville and included Pastor Wade Prime and Reverend Richard Klueg. They discussed with Senator Farley issues that included parental rights.