

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Shirley L. Huntley

11/4/2010: Press Conference on Heart Screening and Workshop for African-American Women

SHIRLEY L. HUNTLEY | October 31, 2010

| ISSUE: HEALTH, HEALTH CARE, WOMEN'S HEALTH, NUTRITION

News From New York State

Senator Shirley L. Huntley

For Immediate Release: November 1, 2010

Contact: Antonio Rodriguez | arodrigu@nysenate.gov | (518) 455-3531

MEDIA ADVISORY

You are cordially invited to attend Senator Shirley L. Huntley's Press Conference for the Healthy Heart Project: Heart Screening and Workshop for African-American Women. This is an effort to articulate our advocacy on closing the gap in health disparities.

The Healthy Heart Project is Co-Sponsored by Dr. Robert Evans, Coordinator of the Rochdale Village Health Project, CEO of Mauser Medical LLC., Dr. Michael Rand, COO of Council on Healthy Aging, LLC, Dr. Nachmy Bronstein, CEO of Council on Healthy Aging, LLC., Dr. Joseph Shen, Owner-Developer Multifunction Cardiology, Columbia University, Dr. Norbert Rainford, Clinical Professor of Cardiology, Columbia University, Dr. Icilma Fergus, Board Officer of The Association of Black Cardiologists, Dr. John E. Strobeck, PhD, FACC, Founder and Medical Director Heart-Lung Associates, Bonnie Arkus, RN, Executive Director Women's Heart Foundation and Joe Evans, COO Mauser Medical LLC., Vice President of Board of Directors Rochdale Village

When: Thursday, November 4, 2010 @ 11:30 AM

Where: Rochdale Village Community Center (Lobby)

169-65 137th Avenue

Jamaica, New York 11434

For more information, please contact Lillian Tennyson or Keisha Corley at my District Office
(718) 523-3069

Let's take a stand on a healthy way of life for African-American Women