Senator O'Mara receives a visit from the Chemung County Youth Bureau

THOMAS F. O'MARA February 8, 2011

Albany, N.Y., February 8—State Senator Tom O'Mara (R-C, Big Flats) met in Albany today with John Kinney and Sarah Schamel of the Chemung County Youth Bureau.

The area representatives visited the Capitol as part of a gathering of youth development leaders from across New York State.

“I appreciate the participation and the leadership of our local young leaders. They stand as positive role models in our communities. Their efforts to develop and carry out programs and services that benefit all area youth make an enormous difference,” said Senator O'Mara.
