

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael F. Nozzolio

Tax official ready to halt cigarette sales by Indians to non-Indians

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO March 9, 2011

| ISSUE: NATIVE AMERICANS

During his recent State Senate confirmation process, Thomas Mattox, Governor Cuomo's newly appointed New York State Tax Commissioner, stated that his Department is ready to begin immediate enforcement of the collection of sales taxes on goods sold by Native Americans to non-Indians. Attached below is a copy of the news article stating Commissioner Mattox's position.