

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

Brooklyn Quality of Life App

ERIC ADAMS August 13, 2012

NYS Senator Eric Adams held a press conference to announce a new, unique crime fighting mobile app entitled "Brooklyn Quality of Life." The App will allow users to utilize their hand held smart phones and tablets to send evidence of criminal activity and dangerous conditions to city agencies. The mobile app is now available for Android devices and will be available for the iPhone in 30 days. For more coverage on this story, click on these links:
