

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Path Through History Conference Highlights Heritage Tourism Promotion

BETTY LITTLE August 28, 2012

| ISSUE: ARTS AND CULTURE

Senator Betty Little attended a conference in Albany on Tuesday, August 28, 2012, to discuss Governor Cuomo's new heritage promotion initiative, the Path Through History program. The conference brought together stakeholders from across the state to discuss regional opportunities to promote New York's history and attract more tourists. Senator Little is pictured talking with Heather Mabee, Saratoga-Capital Region Parks Commission chairwoman.