

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Phil Boyle

Senator Phil Boyle Joins With Good Samaritan in Delivering Supplies To Victims Of Superstorm Sandy

PHIL BOYLE April 2, 2013

| ISSUE: HURRICANES

Paul Rodriguez, a sophomore at St. Anthony's High School, has joined Senator Phil Boyle in his effort to provide the victims of Superstorm Sandy with badly needed supplies. Paul collected donations from his Islip Terrace neighborhood and delivered them to Senator Boyle's office where a local drive continues through April 5th.

"I appreciate the tremendous support given by Paul Rodriguez and so many others who have generously donated to our effort," Senator Boyle said. "Our goal is to provide as much help as we can to the people still suffering from the devastating effects of Sandy."

Senator Boyle has teamed up with Long Island Cares to host this local drive which began on March 19th. If you would like to participate, the most needed items include:

- Household Cleaning Supplies
- Non-Perishable Foods
- Personal Care Items
- Baby Diapers
- Paper Goods
- Pet Food
- New Blankets

Senator Boyle's District Office, located at 23 Argyle Square in Babylon Village, will be accepting donations to benefit the victims of Superstorm Sandy through April 5th.

Those who would like to participate may bring donations during normal business hours, Monday through Friday, from 9:00AM until 5:00PM.