

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Adirondack Day a wonderful success -- The Wild Walk among dozens of exhibits in Albany

BETTY LITTLE April 29, 2013

Wild Walk among dozens of exhibits at Adirondack Day in Albany – Hillarie Logan-Dechene describes the planned experience of the Wild Walk in Tupper Lake to Senate Majority Coalition Leader Dean Skelos and Senator Betty Little during Adirondack Day in Albany on Monday, April 29. The inaugural Adirondack Day showcased dozens of exhibitors and vendors to raise awareness among lawmakers and legislative staff about what life is like within the Blue Line. Pictured from left are: Fred Monroe, Logan-Dechene, Director of Philanthropy for The Wild Center, Senator Skelos and Senator Little.