

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Zach Murray has an interest in government and history

GEORGE D. MAZIARZ May 17, 2013

At the annual Mothers Day breast cancer walk in Lockport, Senator George Maziarz had the pleasure of meeting 9-year old Zach Murray of Newfane, a student in Mrs. Stickney's 4th grade class.

Zach likes history, politics, and social studies. He has read many books about the presidents, including Washington, Lincoln, Kennedy, and Reagan. He would like to have a career in politics, and maybe run for president himself someday!
