Celebrating Eleanor Roosevelt

TERRY GIPSON July 24, 2013

Beautiful day, celebrating and promoting the legacy of Eleanor Roosevelt at her historic Val-Kill home. It is important to remember Eleanor Roosevelt whose legacy challenges us to have strength, courage, and confidence in the face of fear. Following her example, we must continue to accomplish the things that we may think we cannot do. In the top right photo are Uri Perrin, Executive Director, Honoring Eleanor Roosevelt; Claudine Bacher, Founding Chair; and Board Member Carol Hillman. In the bottom right I am sitting with Asm Didi Barrett.
