

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Brad Hoylman-Sigal

Opposing the Proposed Demolition of 130 Seventh Avenue South

BRAD HOYLMAN July 11, 2013

On July 9, I joined with Assembly Member Glick to submit testimony to the Landmarks Preservation Commission in opposition to the proposed demolition of 130 Seventh Avenue South, to make way for a new, seven story building that would be out of context with the Greenwich Village Historic District in which it is located. Please see our testimony below.