

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Click to learn more about September being National Preparedness Month

BETTY LITTLE September 12, 2013

| ISSUE: NATIONAL DISASTERS

American Red Cross

September is National Preparedness Month

When a disaster strikes, being prepared is never a regret. This month is National Preparedness Month, a time designated to raise awareness and encourage families and communities to think about emergency plans.

The American Red Cross in New York State has asked us to help spread the word about the importance of preparedness. To learn more details, please click here.