

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Terry Gipson

Our children's education is a top priority!

TERRY GIPSON June 5, 2014

In my continued efforts to support local educational opportunities for our kids, I visited North East Community Center's after school program in Millerton. I'm committed to supporting such dedicated programs in our community because there is no greater investment than in our children's education and futures.