

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

A Celebration of Gratitude: Honoring North Street Community Partners for the Gift of 317 North Street

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS June 6, 2014

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENTS CORNER

Senator Stewart-Cousins joined Cardinal Dolan, the Archbishop of New York, on Wednesday, June 4th at "A Celebration of Gratitude", a ceremony to honor North Street Community Partners for donating the 317 North Street building and property, making it the permanent home for the John A. Coleman School and Children's Rehabilitation Center. The school and rehab center provide educational and therapeutic services to over 5,000 of New York's children dealing with complex medical conditions. Also in the photos include Pat Tursi, President of the John A. Coleman School and the Children's Rehabilitation Center, Sr. Dorothy Metz, S.C., Sr. Carol A. Barnes, S.C., Sr. Marie Morris, S.C. and our special friend, Stephanie.