Senator Farley Celebrates Helping Hands School

HUGH T. FARLEY September 24, 2014

State Senator Hugh T. Farley (R, C, I - Schenectady) had the pleasure of participating in the ribbon cutting ceremony for Helping Hands School in Clifton Park on Sept. 23rd. Helping Hands School, which serves children with special needs, celebrated its move from its home for 33 years in Halfmoon to its new facility in Clifton Park. Collision Experts, an auto body repair business with shops in Clifton Park and Schenectady, donated the entire $52,000 for the ADA-compliant playground and helped transport salvageable playground equipment to the new site. The playground also had a celebration on Sept. 23rd.
