

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Bonacic

At the opening of "Celebrating Catskill Waters: Past & Present" exhibit at Time and Valleys Museum, Grahamsville

JOHN J. BONACIC October 10, 2014

| ISSUE: ARTS AND CULTURE

Senator Bonacic attended the opening of a new temporary exhibit called “Celebrating Catskill Waters: Past & Present” which opened at the Time and Valleys Museum in Grahamsville on Thursday, October 9, 2014. The exhibit includes photos, videos and a collection of artifacts that illustrates how important the lakes and rivers were to the families living in the area, but also how it was a draw for people from NYC for its recreational activities. With the Senator is (l to r) Congressman Chris Gibson, Dick Coombe, and Paul Rush.