

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

New Rochelle Honorary Renaming of Library Green in Honor of Ruby Dee

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS October 4, 2014

| ISSUE: ARTS AND CULTURE

(New Rochelle - October 2nd) Senator Stewart-Cousins was in New Rochelle for the dedication of the Ruby Dee Park. The Library Green was renamed for the actress and civil rights activist who called New Rochelle home and raised her family here along with her actor and activist husband, Ossie Davis. Her grandson, Muta'Ali and her daughter Nora Davis Day, were on hand as were so many who wanted to participate in this important event.

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

