Senator Bonacic Provides Opening Remarks at Sullivan County Get-Set Energy Symposium

JOHN J. BONACIC | October 23, 2014

| ISSUE: ENERGY

Senator Bonacic presented opening remarks at the Sullivan County Get-Set Energy Symposium in Loch Sheldrake on Wednesday, October 22, 2014. This event, organized by RUPCO, an independent contractor for NYSERDA, includes organizations that are working to promote products or services related to energy efficiency, sustainable construction, or alternative energy. Senator Bonacic visited with the many vendors who exhibited their “energy smart” products and services, and congratulated all those who put this event together.
