

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael Venditto

Senator Venditto Attends the Long Island Housing Partnership (LIHP) and the Long Island Board of Realtors (LIBOR) Conference

MICHAEL VENDITTO January 23, 2015

| ISSUE: HOUSING

New York State Senator Michael Venditto (R, C, I- Massapequa), recently attended a Housing Conference at Farmingdale State College, the conference was jointly hosted by the Long Island Housing Partnership (LIHP) and the Long Island Board of Realtors (LIBOR). The conference provided the latest updates on local housing laws as well as an opportunity to meet with members of LIHP and LIBOR.

Pictured with Senator Venditto from left to right are: Peter J. Elkowitz, President & CEO of LIHP; Valerie Cartright, Town of Brookhaven Councilwoman; Sharon Mullon, LIHP's Fair Housing Education Coordinator; Rabbi Steven Moss, Chairperson of the Suffolk County Human Rights Commission (SCHRC); Jennifer Blaske, Esq., Executive Director, SCHRC; Waylan Hobbs, Deputy Mayor, Village of Hempstead; DuWayne Gregory, Presiding Officer, Suffolk County Legislature; Theresa Sanders, President & CEO, The Urban League of Long Island; James Britz, Senior Vice President LIHP and Joseph E. Mottola, CEO of LIBOR/MLSLI.