JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR January 30, 2015

| ISSUE: POLICE, LAW

"Each year, when the future of our city's finest graduate the Police Academy and become rookie officers, they are bestowed a badge. This badge shows they are our community's protectors and allies, and we the public become their priority," said State Senator Joseph Addabbo, Jr. "Jobs like that are one of a kind, and I sincerely commend these young officers for joining the NYPD and wish them nothing but the best on what is hopefully a safe and productive journey. The 106 is lucky to have these six eager young men join their team, and I thank the precinct for letting me meet with them."
