Information Regarding Pope Francis' Visit to New York City

BRAD HOYLMAN September 23, 2015

NEWS FROM

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR
BRAD HOYLMAN
(D) 27TH SENATE DISTRICT

Dear Friend:

As His Holiness, Pope Francis, begins his first visit to the United States since becoming Pope, I wanted to let you know about changes to normal operations that will occur during his travels in New York City from Thursday, September 24 until Saturday, September 26.

Please read the information below to learn when and how your part of the city may be affected. In addition to making residents aware of street closures and traffic restrictions that may cause delays, the Mayor has also advised building occupants and employees in affected areas to carry identification at all times.

If you have any questions, please reach out to me by return email or at 212-633-8052.

All best,

Brad Hoylman

State Senator

27th District – Manhattan
