Senator Ken LaValle Announces New Superstorm Sandy Fishery Disaster Grants Available

KENNETH P. LAVALLE October 15, 2015

October, 2015 – Senator Ken LaValle announces that the NY State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC), Division of Fish, Wildlife and Marine Resources is now accepting applications for the “Superstorm Sandy Fishery Disaster Grant”. Up to $3.6 million will be available to assist New York businesses.

Senator LaValle said, “Our fishing community is still suffering the devastating effects of Superstorm Sandy from three years ago. It’s my hope that the grants can assist the businesses in their economic recovery efforts.”

The companies must be located in Bronx, Kings, Nassau, New York, Queens, Richmond, Rockland, Suffolk or Westchester Counties and must provide documentary evidence that shows more than $5,000 in revenue or gross income losses as a result of Superstorm Sandy and have at least $15,000 in annual earnings in one of the eligible fishery sectors.

Eligible applicants include businesses in the following sectors:

- Bait and tackle
- For-hire fishing boat operators
- Commercial harvesters
- Commercial seafood dealers/shippers/processors
- Aquaculture facilities

More information about the program or for assistance with filling out the application is available on DEC’s website at: <http://www.dec.ny.gov/pubs/102594.html>. Applicants can also contact DEC at (518) 402-8044 or FisheryGrant@dec.ny.gov, or the Governor’s Office of

Storm Recovery (GOSR) at 1-855-NYS-SANDY (1-855-697-7263) or
