| ISSUE: MEN'S HEALTH

Senator Jack M. Martins (R-7th Senate District), in conjunction with the Integrated Medical Foundation and Shiel Medical Laboratory, will be sponsoring a free prostate cancer PSA test program in Port Washington. The free PSA blood tests will be provided on Thursday, November 19th between 4 pm and 6 pm at the Port Washington Library (1 Library Drive, Port Washington).

The Integrated Medical Foundation's guidelines for the program are as follows:

- Open to all men ages 40 and over who have not previously been diagnosed with prostate cancer, regardless of whether or not they have insurance;
- Each patient will receive a free PSA blood test;
- Men who will be participating in the program must bring a photo ID containing an address, such as a driver's license;
- Patients must bring a self addressed, stamped envelope to be notified of the PSA blood test results.

Appointments for the free PSA blood tests will be scheduled on a first come, first served basis. Men who would like to schedule an appointment for a free prostate cancer PSA test should call Senator Martins' office at 516-746-5924.
