On December 11, 2015, Senator John A. DeFrancisco visited the new Samaritan Center, located in the former St. John Evangelical Church, at 215 North State Street in Syracuse.

need. Since 1981, its mission has been to fight hunger in the greater Syracuse community by providing nutritious hot meals to anyone in need, seven days a week.
