Bronx, NY – In celebration of Christmas, State Senator Jeff Klein (D-Bronx/Westchester), hosted his second annual Breakfast with Santa on Saturday. Nearly 300 participants enjoyed a continental breakfast, danced to holiday music, and took family portraits with Santa. Children created holiday crafts and were given gifts during their visit with Kris Kringle.

“I am thrilled to host my annual breakfast with Santa, which has become a tradition for our Bronx families. Today, we celebrate the season with family and friends, creating priceless memories as we enjoy these festivities,” said Senator Klein. “I wish everyone a safe and memorable holiday, and a new year filled with good health and prosperity.”

This Christmas extravaganza was held at St. Clare’s of Assisi School. “In this festive season it is my pleasure to have Senator Klein host breakfast with Santa here at St. Clare’s School. He is such a wonderful asset to this community. We are so lucky to have him,” said Principal Bivona of St. Clare’s of Assisi School.
