| ISSUE: COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Senator Serrano was honored at The West Side Federation of Neighborhood and Block Associations annual holiday party on the Upper West Side. Senator Serrano received the 2015 Community Service Award in recognition of his distinguished service in the State Senate, as well as his accomplishments in improving education, affordable housing & public health in New York State. The venue was packed with community members and fellow elected officials- including New York City Comptroller Stringer (who presented Senator Serrano with his award), Manhattan Borough President Brewer, Assemblymember Rosenthal, Council Member Rosenthal, and Senator Hoylman.

"I am very honored to have received the 2015 Community Service Award from the West Side Federation of Neighborhood & Block Associations for my work on education, affordable housing & public health. I feel so blessed to be able to work with such a great group of progressive colleagues and organizations throughout the many neighborhoods I represent. Receiving this award was extra special because it was presented to me by my great friend & mentor Comptroller Scott M. Stringer."
