New York State Senator Mike Nozzolio recently met with Kevin Hallock, Dean of the Cornell University ILR School, and Richard Hurd, Cornell University ILR School Associate Dean for External Relations. During their visit, they discussed an array of topics of importance to Cornell University.

“As a proud alumnus of Cornell University, ILR '73 and Grad '77, it is an honor to have helped develop and support new and exciting initiatives that will position Cornell for continued growth well into the future,” said Senator Nozzolio. “I look forward to continuing to work with Cornell to create even more opportunities for the people of the Finger Lakes region.”
