

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

RITCHIE 'POPS BY' FULTON LIBRARY TO MEET WITH CONSTITUENTS

PATTY RITCHIE March 4, 2016

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENT CORNER

State Senator Patty Ritchie visited the Fulton Public Library Thursday evening to hear the concerns of more than two-dozen community members during a “pop-up” constituent meeting.

“I want to thank those who took the time to visit the Fulton Public Library Thursday evening to share their concerns and ask questions on topics ranging from education to job creation,” said Senator Ritchie.

“I’d also like to thank the Fulton Public Library for their help in hosting this event, which gave me a real opportunity to hear firsthand from people in Central New York about what issues are most important to them.”

Senator Ritchie encourages anyone with a question or concern who was unable to attend this week’s pop-up event to contact her office at (315) 342-2057, or send her an email at ritchie@nysenate.gov.

(Attn. photo editors: Senator Ritchie is pictured in the above photo at Thursday’s “pop-up” constituent meeting with Robert and Ann Kastler and Tom Kenyon, President of the Fulton Common Council)