

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Bonacic

Senator Bonacic meets with Minisink Valley Central School District Superintendent Brian Monahan

JOHN J. BONACIC March 8, 2016

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

(Albany, NY)-State Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I-Mt. Hope) met today with Brian Monahan, the Superintendent of the Minisink Valley Central School District, in Albany. Senator Bonacic and Superintendent Monahan discussed increased funding in this year's budget for education, as well as a myriad of other educational issues. The Minisink Valley Central School District is home to approximately 4,400 students, and includes two elementary schools, one intermediate school, one middle school, and one high school.

Senator Bonacic is pictured with Minsink Valley Central School District Superintendent Brian Monahan.