

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month ~ Local advocates and organizations teaming up to raise awareness and take action ~ Read more

THOMAS F. O'MARA April 6, 2016

ISSUE: CHILD ABUSE

Thank you to all of these organizations and advocates for your efforts to protect our children from abuse and violence.

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month and three area organizations -- Glove House, Inc., WETM-TV, and the Chemung County Department of Social Services -- are joining together to raise awareness and take action.

Read and watch more from WETM-TV, "April Marks National Child Abuse Prevention Month"

Visit Glove House HERE.

For more information from Prevent Child Abuse New York, go to http://www.preventchildabuseny.org/

Thank you to all of these organizations and advocates for your efforts to protect our children from abuse and violence.