| ISSUE: PARKS, PARKS AND OPEN SPACE, PARKS AND RECREATION

Our state is blessed with many wonderful parks and historic sites that offer incredible scenic views, an opportunity to unplug from high-tech gadgets and gear, and, most importantly, reconnect with New York's great outdoors.

This coming Saturday, May 7, is "I Love My Park Day," a statewide event dedicated to celebrating New York's terrific parks and historic sites, as well as bringing visibility to our park system and its needs. Throughout I Love My Park Day on Saturday, people are encouraged not only to visit, but to sign up to volunteer and help enhance New York's beautiful parks and historic sites.

I am proud to have supported increased funding to strengthen our wonderful state parks that add so much to our special quality of life. To learn more, and to sign-up for I Love My Park Day, visit these informational websites:
