

2015-J5465

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring Professor Sue Faerman upon the occasion of her designation as recipient of the Distinguished Service to the College Award by Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy

WHEREAS, It is incumbent upon the people of the State of New York to recognize and acknowledge those within our midst who have made significant contributions to the quality of life therein; and

WHEREAS, From time to time this Legislative Body takes note of certain extraordinary individuals it wishes to recognize for their valued contributions to the success and progress of society and publicly acknowledge their endeavors which have enhanced the basic humanity among us all; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Professor Sue Faerman upon the occasion of her designation as recipient of the Distinguished Service to the College Award by the Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy, to be celebrated at its Annual Alumni Dinner & Awards Ceremony on Friday, May 13, 2016, at the New York State Museum, Albany, New York; and

WHEREAS, Sue Faerman earned her Bachelor's degree in Applied Mathematics and Statistics from SUNY Stony Brook, and her Master's degree in Applied Mathematics from George Washington University; she furthered her education by obtaining her Ph.D. in Public Administration from the University at Albany; and

WHEREAS, Professor Sue Faerman's work centers on managerial leadership, focusing particularly on the paradoxical elements of leadership and organizational performance; more recently, she has begun doing research on issues related to work-life balance and integration; in addition, she has authored or co-authored numerous books, articles, and book chapters on leadership and organization and management theory; and

WHEREAS, In 1998, Professor Sue Faerman was named a University Collins Fellow, an award that recognizes members of the University at Albany teaching faculty who have exhibited extraordinary devotion to the University over a sustained period of time;

WHEREAS, From 1999-2013, Professor Sue Faerman was a distinguished teaching professor at the University at Albany From; she also served as the University at Albany's Vice Provost and Dean for Undergraduate Education; she then held the position of Dean of the University's College of Computing and Information; and

WHEREAS, Since 2010, Professor Sue Faerman has held the title of Academic Chair of the Center for Women in Government and Civil Society's Women's Leadership Academy; and

WHEREAS, Throughout her illustrious career, Professor Sue Faerman has been the recipient of numerous awards and accolades for her exceptional teaching and mentorship, including the Organizational Behavior Teaching Society's 2014 Peter J. Frost Mentoring Award, the University at Albany President's 2014 Outstanding Student Organization Advisor Award, the Center for Women in Government and Civil Society's 2013 Women in Public Service Leadership Award, the University at Albany's 2012 Lavender Graduation OUT-Standing Faculty/Staff Leadership Award, NASPAA's 2003 Leslie A. Whittington Excellence in Teaching Award (2003) and both the University at Albany's President's Award and the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 2000; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that those who enhance the quality of life in their community and have shown a long and sustained commitment to the maintenance of high standards in their profession, certainly have earned the recognition and applause of all the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Professor Sue Faerman upon the occasion of her designation as recipient of the Distinguished Service to the College Award by Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Professor Sue Faerman.